Swinging 201: Are We Gonna Fuck, Or What?

Let's Get This Play Party Started!!! If you're tired of spending hours of time getting to know the couple only to find out they don't play, aren't ready to play, or worse yet, the couple that is nothing but DRAMA...then this workshop is for you! You'll leave this workshop with loads of information on how to find couples, approach couples both online and in person, what questions to ask to see if they're DTF (Down To Fuck) and compatible with you and your partner. Learn 3 questions you should ask so you can spot the drama long before your play date, and how to exit your play session gracefully when shit goes south.
